The Soldiers’ Monument in Toowong Memorial Park is inscribed with the names of 102 soldiers who gave their lives during WWI (1914-18).

Bruce will randomly select some of these soldiers and share their stories with you.

BOOK RELEASE ...

Also available for purchase is a newly released publication which tells the stories of these soldiers and titled...

Toowong Memorial Park

This book is a second edition updated with newly acquired information.

Toowong Memorial Park will be available for purchase on Anzac Day after the Dawn Service in Toowong Memorial Park at the Wests Ruby Union Club (Bulldogs) and also at the April TDHS’s Members Meeting

Price: $AUS 20.00

Book orders see contact details below.

If required, a quote for postage can be provided upon request.

All are welcome

Where: Toowong Library, top floor, Toowong Village.

When: Friday, 26th April 2019 from 9.30 am.-12 noon

Please stay and join us afterwards for morning tea.

No charge required but a small donation towards catering would be appreciated

For enquiries, RSVP and apologies: Telephone or text a message to Mob: 0401 180 092

or E: tdhsoc@gmail.com www.toowonghistory.org.au